

Dear Mr. Johnson,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to inform you about the upcoming changes to our service agreement that will

As we discussed during our last meeting, the company has decided to implement several improvements to better serve our

1. Extended support hours from 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM EST
2. Dedicated account manager for all premium customers
3. Priority access to new features and beta programs
4. Monthly performance reports and analytics

Your current subscription will be automatically upgraded to include these benefits at no additional cost for the first six months.

Please sign the attached form and return it by June 15th, 2026 if you wish to continue with the upgraded service. If you have any questions, please contact your account manager.

Thank you for your continued business and trust in our services. We value your relationship and look forward to serving you for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Sarah Mitchell
